

"You did not choose me,
but I chose you..."

John 15:16

Jesus is inviting you to spend time with Him and discern the Father's will for you...

What will your response be?

Join us for Quo Vadis Days!

"... only when a young man has had a personal experience of Christ can he truly understand the Lord's will and consequently his own vocation. The better you know Jesus the more his mystery attracts you. The more you discover him, the more you are moved to seek him."

- Pope Benedict XVI

Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades will celebrate the Sacrifice of the Holy Mass and address the participants of Quo Vadis Days.

Quo Vadis Days

June 14 - 18, 2009

Quo Vadis Days will give you the opportunity to learn how to discern your vocation and learn more about priesthood.

Discover the Father's will for you...

Quo Vadis?

“Where are you going?”

Legend tells us that Saint Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. We know where Jesus went in response to His Father’s will.

Where are you going?

What is the Father’s will for you?

The Lord in His love has a great and wonderful plan for you. Jesus’ plan for some men is to be one of His priests. The priesthood is an indispensable, awesome and beautiful mission. Many of the Church’s greatest saints have been priests. Even though Jesus continues to call young men to this life, sometimes the world we live in makes it difficult to hear His call.

Quo Vadis Days...

... is a time of recreation, fellowship, prayer and discussion to help you explore our Lord’s call in your life.

There will be priests, seminarians and other young men like yourself gathered together for these days.

Activities will include prayer (Holy Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, etc.), hiking, games, bonfires, recreation and sports (soccer, capture the flag, volleyball, swimming, Ultimate Frisbee, flag football), talks, great food and discussions.

A time to share our faith and meet other young men seeking God’s will.
